FRAMEWORKS
24. Framework structure	There are 13 Guiding Principles, which can be considered as a framework. For each of these, further information and key questions to ask are provided in the resource: 1. See the whole picture Recognize that most tourism by its nature involves the destination as a whole, not only industry businesses, but also its ecosystems, natural resources, cultural assets and traditions, communities, aesthetics, and built infrastructure. 2. Use sustainability standards Respect the publicly available, internationally approved minimum criteria for sustainable tourism practices maintained by the Global Sustainable Tourism Council (GSTC) for both industry and destinations. 3. Collaborate in destination management Seek to develop all tourism through a collaborative management structure with equal participation by government, the private sector, and civil society organizations that represent diversity in communities. 4. Choose quality over quantity Manage tourism development based on quality of visitation, not quantity of visitors, so as to enhance the travel experience while sustaining the character of the destination and benefiting local communities. 5. Demand fair income distribution Set policies that counter unequal tourism benefits within destination communities that maximize retention of tourism revenues within those communities. 6. Reduce tourism's burden Account for all tourism costs in terms of local tax burdens, environmental and social impacts, and objectively verifiable disruption. Ensure investments are linked to optimizing net-positive impacts for communities and the

	environment. 7. Redefine economic success Rather than raw contribution to growth in GDP, favor metrics that specify destination benefits such as small business development, distribution of incomes, and enhancement of sustainable local supply chains. 8. Mitigate climate impacts Strive to follow accepted scientific consensus on needed reductions in greenhouse gas emissions. Invest in green infrastructure and a fast reduction in transport emissions involved in tourism - air, sea, and ground. 9. Close the loop on resources When post-pandemic safety allows, turn away from use of disposable plastics by tourism businesses, and transition to circular resource use. 10. Contain tourism's land use Limit high-occupancy resort tourism to concentrated areas. Discourage resort sprawl from taking over coasts, islands, and mountain areas, so as to retain geographical character, a diverse economy, local access, and critical ecosystems. 11. Diversify source markets In addition to international visitation, encourage robust domestic tourism, which may be more resilient in the face of crises and raise citizens' perceived value of their own natural and cultural heritage. 12. Protect sense of place Encourage tourism policies and business practices that protect and benefit natural, scenic, and cultural assets. Retain and enhance destination identity and distinctiveness. Diversity of place is the reason for travel. 13. Operate business responsibly Incentivize and reward tourism businesses and associated enterprises that support these principles through their actions and develop strong local supply chains that allow for higher quality products and experiences.
